

New Energy & Environment

Why are we involved in Energy & Environment ?

Â

The energyÂ to support the current development standards consumes natural resources irreversibly. The reduction of energy consumption and the rational use of renewable energy is the objective to enable new generations of sustainable economic growth and living in a cleaner environment. Read more aboutÂ our objectives.